

Claim # 801 Emanuel Worrior (Warrior)

Claim No. 201.

Under Article 4. Treaty of 14th June 1866.
With Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Emanuel Worrior, Aged 34 a Freedman of the Creek Nation, and loyal Refugee, being duly sworn and examined, deposes and Says: Whilst living on his place near North Fork Town, and sometime in September 1863, he was compelled to abandon the same, and take hasty flight from the rebels, who appeared about his place in large numbers, (having come there after the Honey Springs Battle) -

That he succeeded in reaching the refugee Camp at Gibson, and remained there until the close of the war, then returned to the Creek Nation. Deponent further says, When he fled his home, he owned and possessed and lost by abandonment the following property, and never afterwards recovered the same, or any part thereof: to say:

100 Bushels of Corn $600. 25 Hogs. $125.00 $725.00
Household and Kitchen Furniture - 400.00
Making a total value of $1125.00.

Eleven hundred and twenty five dollars Further, deponent saith not. -

The undersigned, Jesse Franklin, and Scipio Sancho, loyal freedmen of the Creek Nation, being, jointly, duly sworn and examined, do depose and say, they are not interested in the claim of the aforenamed Manuel Worror, in any pecuniary manner whatever; that they have heard his affidavit read to them, and know the same to be correct and true in every particular and that when the claimant fled from his home, he owned and possessed and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property set forth in his deposition: -

On cross examination - as to their knowledge of the value of claimants household and kitchen furniture, they say: "Know he had house furniture and things, but don't know how much were worth" - that they "were about the same as other colored people had."
in answer to specific question, "think they were worth fifty dollars" - Further deponent, do not say.

Jesse Franklin,
Scipio Sancho.

Awards

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony. - Also, the status of claimant. - The amount claimed, however, is, in some instances, considered excessive. - Upon inquiring it is found, the values of the different kinds of property, at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follow: -

Beers, - per bushel, - $ .50 Each. -

Hogs, - per head, - 2. 00 " and for the following one-half the claimed value: -

Household & Kitchen Furniture (See Testimony.) $50.00.

In consideration of these, and all other facts attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant -

Emanuel Worrill, - Four hundred dollars.
